Hallowe'en was duly observed by the boys Wednesday night. Gates were removed, steps dislocated and in the Sixth Ward a jo-ho-bat, loaded with coal, was placed across the street, with one of the Company's signs, "Electric Car Stop Here." They did stop there until workmen removed the obstruction. So far as learned no damage was done and everybody took the affair as a seasonal joke and in good humor.

The Times-Democrat says it is current rumor at Flemingsburg that James Dunn, who formerly lived near Tilton, but latterly has been living near Wash-ington, died a few days since and before his death confessed to having mur-dered his brother, Fritz Dunn, who was killed very mysteriously one Sunday night in September, 1879. It was thought at the time that James Dunn was the guilty party, the evidence was not at hand to convict, and he was released. He soon after moved to Mason county, where he has since lived. The case that time attracted a great deal of attention.

Mr. Thomas Murphy, a former well-known citizen of this county, so long in the employ of Colonel W. W. Baldwin on the Maysville and Lexington Turnpike, and a life-long Democrat, and who is now foreman of County Roads in Fayette, was discharged a few days ago by Supervisor of Roads, Squire Levi Spurr. The reason as-signed by "Squire Spurr" for his dis-charge is that he "talked politics" and that Mr. Murphy's talk was along the line of opposition to Geobelman and all that iniquitous train implies.

The regular evening of the Mason County Medical Society held its monthly meeting Wednesday at the office of Dr. Ellis. The meeting was well attended from city and county, including visiting laity and honorary members.

The Society sustained its first loss in the death of Dr. Pangburn, and a com-mittee to report at next meeting, was appointed to draft fitting resolutions of respect and sympathy.

The regular essay was by Dr. A. G. Browning, the subject being "Certain Forms of Heart Disease as Conductive to Fatal Toxemia; With a Case in Ob-stetrics." The essay was strictly upon professional lines and for professional consideration, and so indicated sources of valuable information to the obstetri-cian especially.

This admirable paper was the interest-ing feature of the occasion. It presented with his customary felicity of state-ment the results of many years of pa-tient observation and research, and will add greatly to the reputation which he has already established as a skillful practitioner of the obstetrical art. It contains valuable hints of a practical nature which should not be lost, and we trust the writer will at once commit the paper to type.

Dr. Ellis also read a paper on color blindness and the necessity for ex-amination of all officials in charge of railways, steamers, etc. The sugges-tions were of wide application and per-tinent.

The Society gladly accepted the kind invitation of Dr. Davis to hold its next meeting at Mayslick Wednesday, No-vember 28th. There will be a morning and evening session, with opportunity for voluntary individual effort in the way of essays and papers. A full at-tendance is desired and confidently ex-pected.

Now Being Tried.

Case at Columbus of Thomas Ryan, Alias James Sullivan.

THE STATE RESTS ITS CASE.

The trial of Thomas Ryan, alias James Sullivan of this city, charged with the murder of Napoleon Suver at Georgetown, O., on February 15th, 1890, began at Columbus on Wednesday.

Assistant Prosecutor Seymour stated the case for the state. He said that on the night of February 15, Thomas Ryan with deliberation and malice took the life of Napoleon Suver.

Ryan at the time was running a saloon in Georgetown and it was in this place the crime was committed.

Shortly before midnight, after an altercation and possibly a scuffle took place, three shots were fired by Ryan, one striking Napoleon Suver between the eyes and penetrating the brain, and another striking a man named Stevens in the neck.

Suver was in the saloon at the time, but after being shot he succeeded in getting out and was found shortly afterwards on a wood pile in the yard. He died the following morning at 4 o'clock.

The next morning Ryan was informed of the death of Suver and he said he would never be taken. Not until a few months ago was anything heard of him.

After leaving Columbus he went to St. Louis and started a saloon and hotel in Maysville, Ky. He was living under the name of James Sullivan. No one knew he was guilty of a crime until, while in a delirious condition, he told his name was Ryan and that he was wanted in Ohio for murder. His arrest followed.

Mr. Seymour said that the state ex-pected to prove that Ryan borrowed a revolver, saying that he proposed to get even with two men. Major Walker, for the defense, simply said that the defendant was not guilty as charged in the indictment.

Jerry Suver was the first witness for the state. He told how on the night of February 15, 1890, while he and three men named Stoneburner, Stevens and Kelso were playing cards in Ryan's saloon, a dispute arose and Ryan took Stevens to task for raising a fight. Later on after Napoleon Suver entered the saloon, Stevens and Ryan got into a scuffle. Shortly afterwards Stevens got behind a pool table, when Ryan pulled a gun and fired. The first bullet struck Stevens and the second his brother. Shortly afterwards he found his brother on a wood pile in the yard dying.

Samuel Stoneburner was more graphic in telling of the shooting. He said that Ryan pointed the gun first to the left at Stevens, then turned to the right, and Suver threw up his hands. Just then the bullet struck him.

The next witness was Kollie Stephens, one of the men who started the rough house in Ryan's saloon on the night of the murder. Kollie's brother, Josh, was shot in the neck at the time Suver was killed.

Stevens said that he went to Ryan's saloon at sun down and remained there until the shooting. There was considerable loud talk during the evening and a fight started later on over a game of seven up. Witness said that Ryan came from behind the bar with a revolver in his hand. He picked up a chair. Ryan said that the Stevens boys wanted to start a racket and he would stand for it. Shortly afterwards, when the hostilities were again renewed, Ryan pulled his gun and shot Jack Stephens in the neck. Suver ran to-wards the door and threw up both hands. He was shot in the head and fell on the outside. Witness said that his brother had cut Ryan's hair a short time before the crime. At the time Ryan borrowed Josh's gun and said he would get even with Suver and Lyons because they had taken his wife out-riding while he (Ryan) had been in Jail.

On cross-examination the fact was brought out that Stephens was in a class all by himself for meanness. In Georgetown he was known as a bad man and a bad man in that village has been a terror. He admitted having done time in the Penitentiary for steal-ing harness, of breaking into stores and dwellings, of shooting at different men, and of engaging in numerous fights and escapades. The defense put so many charges against him that he finally declined to answer the questions put to him.

A witness named John Stone created a big laugh while testifying. He re-sided next door to Ryan's saloon and when the shooting was awak-ened by his wife, who said that the men in Ryan's saloon were killing one another. Witness said that he told his wife that if five or six were killed he would lay off half a day and help to bury them.

With this testimony the state rested its case.

Nearly 100 witnesses have been sub-poenaed and the case will probably last all week.

Suver was not yet 19 years of age when he was killed.

The Difference in Cost!

Of thoroughly good, fashionable and serviceable clothes and shoes, such as bear "our" label, and inferior goods is not large enough to warrant you taking the risk attached to buying ordinary goods. The kind of clothes we sell are tailored by the same class of journeymen tailors as are employed by high-priced merchant tailors. Not a yard of fabric is used in these garments that has not been thoroughly tested for its textile strength and color fastness; therefore, we thoroughly in-sure and guarantee all goods we sell, and say "money refunded" without argument if for any reason you are dissatisfied with your purchase.

Our Experience as Well as Yours!

Has proven that the kind of merchandise we sell is as near perfection as can be, and though they cost a little more than the other kinds, they are really the cheapest kind in the end. Our leaders in clothes are Stein-Bloch Co., Adler Bros. & Co., the best brands in the country.

In Shirts the Manhattan, Hanan Shoes

 There is no question whatever that any attempt in the coming election to override or evade the law will react disastrously upon the party that makes it.

The Goebelite candidate for Congress, especially, will be the beneficiary of an honest enforcement of the law. The National Government cannot, and will not, permit a violation of laws which are enacted for the benefit of all. There is no reason why they should not be faithfully observed in Kentucky as elsewhere.

SUFFRAGE MUST NOT BE CORRUPTED OR COERCED.
 It must be distinctly understood, therefore, that all violations of the election laws will be carefully noted, and the prescribed penalties rigorously and impartially enforced in every case.

The hand of the law will lie heavy upon all such offenders, high and low.

Bar's MARSH may compose himself. There'll be no Deputy United States Marshals in Mason county or elsewhere to "intimidate" a single voter. They will observe the law, and not violate it. They will not go nearer to the polls than fifty feet. They will make no arrests. But they will take a few notes, which will be useful in the Federal Court, inasmuch as they will insure a season in the Nashville Penitentiary for all who do "intimidate" voters. Everybody with the sense of an oyster knows that there is now no law for the appointment of a lot of Deputy Marshals for this purpose; but there are laws that have not been repealed which give power to the regularly appointed Deputy Marshals to act in the premises—and these are the fellows that will look after the law breakers in Maysville and Mason county.

It will be well for some people in Maysville and some people in Mason county to keep in mind the following provision of the amended law under which the coming election will be held—

Sec. 15. Any person or persons who shall unlawfully attempt to prevent, or prevent any voter from casting his ballot, or shall attempt to, or intimidate any person or persons so to prevent him from casting his ballot, or who shall unlawfully interfere with the officers of election in the discharge of their duties as such, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction, be confined in the Penitentiary for a period of years, not less than one nor more than five years, for each offense. The fact that the person or persons so offending may be an officer or officers of the Federal Government, or of the state, or any district, county, town or city thereof, or of election, shall not relieve them of the responsibility or penalty for the violation of this section.

The Beckhamites are preparing to steal the election in the same way that GOEBEL attempted to steal it, by the commission of fraud under the Goebel Law. This is mainly done by the use of partial and unfair election officers.

In Logan county, for instance, JOHN RHEA's home county, and JOHN RHEA's brother being one of the Commissioners, the election officers have been named, and out of eighty-four to be appointed the Republicans were allowed from their lists less than fifteen officers. In other words, less than one officer in five was given to the Republicans. This, of course, means that any sort of count will be made for BECKHAM. With all the officers of one persuasion there should be no difficulty in fixing the result.

In Daviess county the partisan Election Board has arranged it so that in all the Republican Precincts there are Democratic officers; in the Democratic Precincts there is a fair divide of officers. There, of course, is no reason for this except that there must be an effort to suppress the vote in Republican Precincts. The same condition prevails all over the state. If the Haldean and Beckham gang can steal the election with the aid of the law they will do so. If they cannot they will rely upon the Coasting Board. There is no such thing as hoping for a fair majority of the votes.

It has been impossible to get Mr. BECKHAM to say whether he would abide by the decision of the people as expressed at the polls on November 6th, or would attempt to hold on to the office he now occupies under the Kohn construction of the Constitution. The question has been asked him for over three months, and now it is announced that copies of the Kohn opinion are being sent broadcast over the state, to prepare the public mind for such an effort. Whether the following poetry was written with Mr. BECKHAM in mind is not known, but The Spout-spring Times publishes this week—

THE MEN WHO LOSE.
 The world has pity for the man
 Who, having lost, goes on
 And tries to smile despite the hope
 Of profit that is gone.
 But, on the other side, contempt
 Is all the cold world feels
 For him who loses in the game
 And then lies down and squeals.

It is not a matter of surprise that ROBERT NOAKES, the liar premier of the Powers trial, and FLETCHER AUSTIN, the poor perjurer who trapped himself, and WHARTON GOLDEN, the progressive testifier, who was ready to swear to anything needed to fill up a gap in the case, are all now at work for ARTHUR GOEBEL of Cincinnati. These men have been provided with employment by the GOEBELITE pending that division of the reward fund which will probably make each one of them independent. TOM CAMPBELL's professional swears must be taken care of. It will not do to let GOLDEN and CULTON and NOAKES get away before the cases are entirely heard. They must be provided for before the final conviction of their victims can make them entitled to their share of the reward fund. Of course there is nobody so much interested and so able to get them places as ARTHUR GOEBEL. He is a business man, interested in many corporations. He can secure employment for the professional witnesses that will hold them until the coming of the reward.
